MEDIA RELEASE

VICOM REWARDS 8,888,888TH CUSTOMER WITH A LIFETIME OF FREE VEHICLE INSPECTIONS

26 March 2014 – A regular vehicle inspection at the VICOM inspection centre along Sin Ming Drive turned out to be a real treat for Mr Neo Kian Seng today.

The 34-year-old, who drives a seven-year-old Toyota Vios, became the 8,888,888th customer to have his vehicle inspected by VICOM.

Said a surprised Mr Neo: “This morning’s inspection was supposed to be a routine check. So, it has come as a big and pleasant surprise when I was told that I am VICOM’s 8,888,888th customer, and that I’ve won a lifetime of free vehicle inspections.”

Mr Sim Wing Yew, CEO of VICOM, said: “We have completed 8,888,888 vehicle inspections since our inception in 1982 and it’s definitely a significant milestone. We wanted to celebrate this occasion and we’re glad we did – it’s great seeing the joy on Mr Neo’s face.”

According to regulatory requirements, a three to 10 years old private car is to be inspected biennially, while a vehicle that is above 10 years old is to be inspected annually.
